UNIVERSITY SCHOLAR PROPOSAL PREPARATION WORKSHOP AGENDA
Sept. 21 and 22, 2021
5:00 - 6:00 p.m. via WebEx

WRITING A STRONG UNIVERSITY SCHOLAR PROPOSAL

- Assessment Criteria: https://universityscholars.uconn.edu/assessment/

- Model proposals: https://universityscholars.uconn.edu/proposal/

PROPOSAL
- Detailed guidance: https://universityscholars.uconn.edu/application-instructions/

LEARNING PLAN FORM & SUBSTITUTION REQUEST FORM

- Forms: https://universityscholars.uconn.edu/forms/

FACULTY ADVISORY COMMITTEE
- Composition of committee https://universityscholars.uconn.edu/advisory-committee/
- Faculty evaluations (details: https://universityscholars.uconn.edu/application-instructions/)

ACADEMIC INTEGRITY

Improper summarizing and paraphrasing is the most common form of plagiarism encountered in research proposals. If academic misconduct (e.g., plagiarism) is detected in application materials, consequences may include disqualification from consideration for the University Scholar Program and referral to the Academic Integrity Hearing Board. For more info and resources, see http://universityscholars.uconn.edu/academic-integrity/

TIMELINE AND LOGISTICS

Deadline: Monday, Nov. 8, 2021 at 11:59 pm online at http://quest.uconn.edu, including faculty evaluations and endorsements. Please upload all materials in PDF format.

Course Registration for Spring 2022: takes place as usual. Schedules may be modified, if selected and if needed

Notification: by Wed., Dec. 22, 2022

QUESTIONS? Contact: Monica van Beusekom, Coordinator, University Scholar Program/ monica.vanbeusekom@uconn.edu / Schedule appointments via http://nexus.uconn.edu (listed under Storrs Campus / Enrichment Programs)